

Fairfield Hires Teachers, Raises Cafeteria Wages; Probes Construction Lag

The Fairfield Joint School Board Monday evening accepted the resignation of Mrs. Jean Snowberger, First Grade teacher who will move with her husband to Kittingen in September, hired three high school teachers for the 1963-64 term, placed orders for new furniture and equipment in the amount of $14,948.76, and were informed that the new building is "two to three weeks behind schedule." The board also voted to increase the wages of the cafeteria workers for the new school year.

Charles Kauffman, a June graduate of Shippensburg State College, was elected to teach social studies at the minimum mandated teacher's salary. Joseph T. Love, president of the board, explained that pending legislation will determine the salary scale for teachers, but added that in the event a ruling is not reached by September 1 new teachers will be paid at the present minimum rate.

Mrs. Betty Bishop, a teacher in the Fairfield school system over a period of several years, was hired as a commercial teacher at $4,500. Mrs. Bishop also will teach some English classes.

Mrs. Carol Bream, Gettysburg, a member of the faculty two years ago, has agreed to teach physical education, science and health on a part time basis at $2,250. The board was told by Robert Newman, chairman of the personnel committee, that girls' physical education teachers are difficult to locate and added that out of 70-90 letters to prospective teachers the committee had received only one reply. Mrs. Bream will teach on a half-day schedule, five days a week, for a total of 20 classes a week.

REVISED CAFETERIA WAGES

Newman also asked the board to accept a revised wage scale for cafeteria workers of $1.25 an hour for the supervisor and $1.15 an hour for other full time help. He recommended $1 an hour starting wage for all new cafeteria help which may be needed under the new enlarged setup. The board rejected a two-year projected plan submitted by Newman for wage increases on the basis that extensive revisions may be necessary after the new cafeteria is in operation. The board voted to review the scale at the end of the 1963-64 school term. The cafeteria supervisor previously had received $1.10 an hour plus a 10 per cent bonus at the end of the year, and other employees were paid $1 an hour plus the bonus, but had requested the board to pay a flat salary instead of salary and bonus. Newman's plan urged a five-cent-an-hour increase for the 1964-65 term. He assured the board that prices in the cafeteria would remain the same as last year despite the slight increase in wages.

AWARD FURNITURE BIDS

John Luntz, chairman of the furniture and equipment committee, recommended to the municipal authority the purchase of furnishings for the new building in the amount of $14,948.76. The authority accepted the recommendations and awarded the following bid contracts: C. M. Eichenlaub, Pittsburgh, 480 student desks, $8,792; Equipment and Furniture Co., Inc., New York City, 500 student chairs and 250 folding chairs, $4,311; Robert & Meck, Harrisburg, one teacher's desk and three file cabinets, $289.85; Jesse K. McCoy, Camp Hill, 42 folding tables, $1,538.88; School Health Supply Co., Ashton, Ill., a cabinet on wheels and a dental examination chair $193; IBM Corporation, Lexington, Ky., two IBM typewriters, $730; Broadhead-Garret Co., Cleveland, Ohio, three cabinets and seven art tables, $1,018.98. Harold Blair, supervising principal, told the board that several smaller items were not placed for bids, but estimated that the cost for miscellaneous equipment would not exceed $200 or $300. A budget of $20,000 has been allowed for furnishings.

The board also accepted the low bid of Broadhead-Garret for industrial art supplies at $481.20 net. John Reinhold was the only other bidder at $546.05.

BUILDING BEHIND SCHEDULE

William Murphy, representing Buchart Associates, York, told the board that construction on the new elementary addition to the high school is "two to three weeks behind schedule," but that the general contractor has as-

YOUTH BRIEFS

KIWANIANS ON EUROPE STAY

James Bricker, Gardner R. 2, a senior at Gettysburg College, who in 1959 was the first Gettysburg High School student to go abroad under the local exchange student program, was the speaker Monday evening at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

Bricker was one of 900 American youths to live in Europe for the three-month period. He illustrated his talk on his trip to France, Holland, Germany, Norway, Sweden and Finland, with color slides made during the trip. He told the Kiwanians that while residing with a family in Finland he learned that the people of Finland live under great tension because their nation borders on Russia and "are resigned to the fact that they could be swallowed up by Russia at any time if Russia should decide to move into the tiny democracy of Finland."

PICNIC COMMITTEE

President Charles Pentz appointed the following as a special family picnic committee to arrange for a picnic August 5 at the Kiwanis pavilion in Recreation Park: Edwin Kann, Paul Estep, William Ditzler, William Swisher, Warren Apgar, Thomas McCarthy and Wayne Clark.

Donald Sullivan, chairman of the agriculture and conservation committee, reported plans are being considered for the club to take part in the annual Farm City Day program of the Gettysburg Young Farmers by conducting the refreshment stand as the club did last year.

Guests included Kenneth Foust, Deming, New Mexico, formerly of Gettysburg and past president of the local Kiwanis club; Thomas McVain, Carlisle, N.M., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Langford, Denver, Colo.

STOLE GAS FOR STOLEN AUTO

A routine check on an auto bearing New York license plates paid off for Deputy Donald Alton, of Hagerstown, Saturday night about 6:30.

Alton said he noticed an auto which "just didn't look right." He stopped the auto which contained five youths and an investigation showed the auto was stolen from Brooklyn Friday.

Further investigation found that the five youths were wanted in Adams County for securing 12½ gallons of gasoline from the M. L. Voltz service station four miles west of here on the Lincoln Highway and then not paying the bill.

Dep. Allen said he charged all five of the youths with auto larceny. However, Herbert Paolini, 18, Brooklyn, N.Y., was charged also with driving without an operator's license.

The youths are being held at the Washington County jail for Brooklyn authorities and a hearing in magistrate's court at Hagerstown.

Senator To Speak At Farmers' Picnic

The Adams County Farmers' Association will hold its annual picnic and covered dish supper at the South Mountain Fairgrounds, Arendtsville, Wednesday, July 24, at 7 p.m.

Baked ham, bread and butter, dessert and beverage will be provided by the association. All members will bring their table service and a covered dish to pass.

State Senator D. Elmer Hawbaker will be the speaker. Dinner music will be provided as well as entertainment for all.

WORLD PEACE IMPOSSIBLE, SPEAKER SAYS

The hatred of Poles for Germans startled Susan Bucher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Bucher, Biglerville, during a recent period of study in Europe, she told the local Rotary Club at its meeting Monday evening in the YWCA.

"We think of history as something that happened in the past," she said. "We can see how events of the past may have set in motion things with which we must cope today. We had a German exchange student here only a few years after World War II. A few years before we had been fighting the Germans, but that meant nothing, the war was over and here was a person, a human being, visiting us and we were pleased to have him."

MUST KEEP STRIVING

"But in Poland and Germany I found a different situation. There their lives are absorbed in history. They can't seem to act as creatively in the present because the past seems to hold them back."

"We went to Poland for a peace conference. We wanted to talk peace, but no matter how the discussion started the Poles brought it around to their violent hatred of the Germans. We had never experienced this violent nationalism before."

"I began to appreciate how very difficult it is for two countries like Poland and Germany to understand each other and I thought that if two countries living side by side are not able to understand each other, then diplomats must have an almost impossible job when they seek to bring about understanding between nations."

"I came back with the feeling that peace is an impossible ideal, but at the same time more determined than ever that peace is an ideal that we must strive for."

STUDENTS OLDER

In Poland, particularly, she found "constantly an attempt to build up animosity and little attempt to tear it down." She added: "Yet we found Poles, not Poles but people, with families and hopes and fears just as any American, or any German."

$340 FROM PLAY

As an exchange student in the university at Marburg, Germany, following the peace conference she found "much more academic freedom than we have here. There were no classes you had to attend."

Jailed For Theft Of Tire From Car

State police Monday afternoon placed Efrain Rosado, 23, formerly of Chicago and formerly of a work camp in Franklin County, in the Adams County jail in default of bail on a charge of larceny brought before Justice of the Peace Anna Thompson.

Cpl. James Treas said Rosado is accused of stealing a tire from the trunk of a car of Lawrence Kimple, Orrtanna R. D., between July 3 and 6.

The state police corporal also brought similar charges against Ruth Espinosa, alias Cuqui Rosado, and William S. Thompson, of the Chambersburg area, in connection with the theft. The two were not immediately apprehended.

Church Will Be Erected By Sisters Of Charity In Memory Of Mother Seton

According to a story in a Sunday newspaper, the Sisters of Charity in Emmitsburg have secured a rare special privilege from the Holy See to build a church to Mother Seton while she is still unrecognized.

Ordinarily churches can be dedicated only to the sainted or canonized, but so great has been the appeal of Mother Seton, so eager are Catholics to enshrine her that special permission was granted to build the church before official canonization processes are completed.

Sister Eleanor, mother provincial of the Sisters of Charity at Emmitsburg, was quoted as saying: "We have not yet gotten beyond the thinking stage, but we are planning some kind of church to Mother Seton. It will be located near the end of the lane to St. Joseph College. We will probably move the elementary school to make room for it."

UNCONFIRMED REPORTS

According to unconfirmed reports, the Mother Seton Elementary School, now located on Rt. 15 opposite the college, will be moved to the Creamery Road at the rear of the college property. The building erected about 12 years ago is a sectional construction which could be quickly dismantled and re-erected.

Sister Eleanor, the article stated, was reluctant to call the proposed church a basilica. But she was emphatic that it would be built "within this decade." The newspaper also reported that Emmitsburg is already having

COLLEGE GETS 3 MEMBERS FOR ROTC DUTIES

The following personnel changes for the academic year 1963-64 in the Gettysburg College Department of Military Science ROTC have been announced by the college and Army Headquarters 21st Corps.

SFC (E7) Thomas R. Koballa, SFC Armand F. Prosperi and S/Sgt. (E6) Billy A. Davis are being assigned to new duties by the Army.

Koballa has been at Gettysburg since August, 1961. He will depart from here in September for Fort Bliss, Texas, for an assignment with the 6th Air Defense Artillery Group. He served with the U. S. Marine Corps overseas during World War II. His other overseas assignments with the Army included Germany 1951-1954 and Saudi Arabia 1959-1960. While stationed at the college, he was instructor in Army administration and also attended classes to earn credits toward a degree. He and his family reside in Gettysburg.

PROSPERI TO KOREA

Prosperi came to Gettysburg in April, 1957 from Ft. Eustis, Va. He served as supply sergeant in the detachment and was instructor of logistics for the past five years. While here Prosperi was active in assisting in sports activities with the athletic department of the college. He will depart on or about August 20 for a one-year assignment in Korea. His family will continue their residence in Littlestown where he plans to return and retire later.

Davis, who has been at Gettysburg since November, 1960 has been assigned to duty in Korea. He served overseas and in other assignments before coming to Gettysburg. His family will reside in North Carolina while he is in Korea.

Three new members of the detachment are SFC (E6) Robert V. Bishard, S/Sgt. (E6) George Klein and SFC (E6) Charles Munson.

REC BOARD TO ASK COUNCIL FOR STORAGE

Gettysburg's Recreation Board, lacking space for its supplies and equipment, determined at its meeting Monday evening in Gettysburg Junior High School to go before the borough council at its August meeting to ask council to construct a new storage building at Recreation Park.

Chairman Kenneth Dengler and member, Barton Hoppe, were delegated to represent the board at the council meeting. Between now and August 5, date of the council session, Dengler and Hoppe are to get all details together concerning the proposal to replace the present "somewhat dilapidated" frame 20 by 40 storage structure at the park with a 30 by 60 concrete block building. A $3,000 estimate of cost was discussed Monday evening, but Hoppe and Dengler are to get more accurate figures before they meet with council.

Discussion indicated the cost of a new building may be made up next year by a reduction in the summer staff of the recreation program. Recreation Director Ray Thompson and Assistant Howard Shoemaker reported their belief that the summer program is "overstaffed." The staff was cut from 29 to 23 this summer, and both expressed the belief that next summer another six might be dropped from the list.

13,134 ATTEND

Attendance so far this season was listed as 8,524 for the four weeks of supervised recreation activities at the various playgrounds, and 4,610 attending the evening programs, including softball, for a total of 13,134.

Playground attendance has declined since the first two weeks of the program and some complaints were noted concerning the physical fitness program inaugurated this summer. Thompson said that "20 minutes out of the program daily should not be too much."

Admitting that a few of those who attended the playground may have dropped from participation because of the National Physical Fitness program adopted as part of the activities he added "Unfortunately those we lost are the ones that need it the most."

Normally there is a diminution in attendance after the first weeks of the program because "the carnival kills us for awhile until the youngsters get back in the habit of attending, the Red Cross swimming program takes away a number of those attending morning sessions, the day camps cut into attendance, family vacations take youngsters away. We lose a number to the Eighth Grade typing (Continued on Page 2)

Assault Charge Dropped By J.P.

A charge of assault and battery against Earl J. Richardson, Arendtsville, filed by his father-in-law, Lester E. Miller Sr., Gettysburg R. 1, was dismissed Monday evening by Justice of the Peace John Whitman, Cumberland Twp. The hearing had been continued from July 8 when first testimony was taken.

The justice ruled that the plaintiff, Miller, was the "real aggressor" and divided the costs between Miller and Richardson. Testimony brought out that, after a disagreement with Richardson, Miller ordered Richardson from the property and got a rifle to back up his orders. The gun was taken from him by a daughter from Hanover who was visiting in the Miller home at the time.

STOLEN CAR FOUND

The car of Thomas Weirich, Baltimore St., reported stolen late Saturday night or early Sunday morning from a parked position on Wade Ave. was reported to borough police Monday afternoon at 12:30 by state police as having been found near Twin Bridges on the Gettysburg-Harrisburg Rd.

Borough police said Curtis Glass, 57, Taneytown, was driving a tractor-trailer owned by Michell Transportation Co., Union Bridge, around Lincoln Square when the left rear wheels of the trailer climbed the curb and struck the light pole, breaking it off. No estimate of damage was given by police.

OVERDOSE OF BARBITURATES FATAL TO VET

Welly DePaul Oden, 65, Emmitsburg R. 1, a World War I veteran, died Monday afternoon, about 1 o'clock. The Adams County coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, said death occurred while Mr. Oden was being brought to the Warner Hospital here. He listed the cause as an "accidental overdose" of barbiturates.

A native of Waynesboro and a resident of the Emmitsburg area for a number of years, Mr. Oden was a son of the late John Edwin and Addie (Welly) Oden, and was a member of St. Anthony's Shrine Catholic Church, near Emmitsburg.

A World War I Army veteran, he was a member of the Disabled American Veterans.

The Rosary will be recited there that evening at 7:30 o'clock.

ARENDTSVILLE HIGH ALUMNI HOLD DINNER

The annual Arendtsville High School Alumni dinner was held Sunday at the Lamp Post Tea Room with 71 present. A number of new classes were admitted to membership and the class of 1926 was placed in charge of next year's gathering.

Lewis Bosserman, Arendtsville Elementary School principal and president of the class of 1925 at the high school, was toastmaster at Sunday's affair. His class was in charge of arrangements. Charles Smith, class vice president, and Grace McCauslin House, secretary, helped to plan the dinner and program.

Bosserman welcomed the alumni, introduced his committee and extended greetings from the host class. The annual dinners, he said, were originated by the class of 1919 largely through the efforts of Mrs. Isabelle Knouse Rutschky and her husband, Prof. Charles Rutschky, a former teacher at the school.

ONE IN FIRST CLASS

The association has been holding dinners annually at the Lamp Post since 1958 and each year a new class was admitted until the present when classes of 1919 through 1926 have been included. During a business session Sunday, it was decided to include all classes previous to 1919. The first class was graduated in 1912. Guyon Wierman, Norristown, the only member of that class of 1912, attended Sunday's affair and spoke briefly. "It was a very simple matter to make decisions for the class," he said. "I was the valedictorian, president, vice president, secretary and treasurer and had no trouble choosing class colors of blue and white, the class flower or in planning the commencement program." Wierman was the speaker for the "class" on that occasion.

Sunday's program included recollections and comments from alumni. Prof. Charles Taylor, a former teacher, spoke and joined (Continued On Page 2)

MAN WHO FLED JAIL HERE IN '59 TO RETURN

Edgar Allen Golden, 28, once of Gettysburg, later of Galveston, Texas, is scheduled to be returned to Adams County August 5, nearly four years after his escape from the Adams County jail.

On the night of December 6, 1959, Turnkey William E. "Johnny" Knox waited, following a church service held that Sunday evening at the jail, for a signal from a trusty inside the jail block that all of the men were in their cells. He then stepped into the cell block for a final check.

When he did so, four men overpowered him, causing a number of injuries. Three of the four escaped the jail.

OTHERS CAUGHT

One of the escapees, Guy E. Gross, Gettysburg R. 1, then 23, was captured later. One of the men who took part in overpowering Knox, Earl Leo Miller, Spry, was caught before he escaped.

Golden and Johnny Paul Washam, also of Texas, reached Virginia before they were captured—largely through the alertness of a Virginia garageman to whom they gave a credit card in return for gas.

Washam and Golden came to the Adams County jail November 27, 1959, from New Jersey, where they had been in prison on robbery charges. They were scheduled to be sentenced here on charges of burglarizing three service stations. They were wanted in Texas and elsewhere for burglary. At the time there were about 30 burglary charges against the two men.

STOLE CAR HERE

After escaping the local jail they stole a car of A. S. Kunkle, Howard Ave. When they used Kunkle's credit card in Virginia, the service station manager there notified his company which in turn notified local police who called Virginia authorities.

Virginia state police caught the duo 35 miles from Staunton, Va., on December 14. They had stolen a car in Staunton and had also broken into a school house at Fincastle, Va., had stolen food.

WANTED IN TEXAS

Both went to prisons, Washam recently was brought back to Adams County and sentenced to 2½ to 5 years in the penitentiary.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter said today he has been notified Golden is scheduled for release from Virginia Penitentiary August 5 and Sheriff Dawson Miller has been instructed to pick up Golden at that time. If he pleads guilty he will be sentenced probably August 31, the last of the four included in the prison break in December, 1959, to be sentenced on that charge.

Attorney Teeter said that after Golden is sentenced here, he still will have charges from Texas against him.

RICES HOST LOCAL CHOIR

Ambassador and Mrs. John S. Rice, Gettysburg, entertained the Gettysburg College Choir at a buffet supper at The Hague as the group began its six-week tour of Europe with visits and appearances in Amsterdam. Miss Ellen Rice, daughter of the ambassador and a member of the choir, greeted her colleagues on their arrival. Although unintentional it was reported that the American flag was flying upside down as the choir arrived, the usual signal of distress.

Canal tours and visits to museums initiated the group into the charms of Netherlandian life. The choir gave concerts at The Hague and Arnhem before departing for Switzerland. The performances were well received by Dutch critics.

THE HAGUE (AP) — The Gettysburg (Pa.) College Choir has drawn praise from the critics for a performance here during the weekend.

"The tone is sublime," wrote one.

Others described the performance in terms such as "cultivated, stylish and very musical."

BORDER ROAD BLOCKS SHOW NO SMUGGLING

HARRISBURG (AP) — Spot checks along Pennsylvania's border have uncovered little evidence of widespread bootlegging of liquor, beer and cigarettes despite the advent of higher state taxes, the Revenue Department reported Monday.

The department, with the aid of state police, has been making the checks in various border counties since last month when the liquor tax went up to 15 per cent and the cigarette levy jumped to eight cents a pack.

One roadblock, set up on Route 11 at the Pennsylvania-Maryland line, stopped 186 cars without a major violation, said Stephen Lewis, assistant director of the Department's Bureau of Investigations and Collections.

Present surveys show that the smuggling of cigarettes, beer and liquor from other states to avoid the higher taxes is nominal," he added.

Lewis also noted that cigarette sales in the outlying regions of the state have decreased since the tax boost, although he had no specific statistics available.

Similar decreases also have been noted in the center of the state, indicating that it does not necessarily stem from people bringing in cigarettes from other states.

Importing contraband cigarettes is subject to a $25 fine per carton.

Nonpayment of the tax on six bottles or more of liquor could result in misdemeanor action in the county court. If the seizure revealed more than 11 tax-unpaid bottles, the violators could be fined. Violations involving anything under six bottles carries a fine and confiscation.

with alumni in praising the now nonexistent school. The Arendtsville Vocational School was one of the first of its kind in the state. Tribute was paid to two brothers, George and E. A. Rice, for their roles in starting the school at Arendtsville.

Copies of an educational history of Arendtsville were distributed Sunday. The information was gathered by Mrs. Guy Herring and reproduced by Chairman Bosserman.

Paul Bittinger, president of the class of 1926, was placed in charge of arrangements for next year's dinner meeting. His committee will include A. E. Orner, Edward Staub, Verna Myers, Alma Wert, Evelyn Orner and Willis Waybright. Pictures of previous alumni meetings were shown as well as photos of the early school buildings in Arendtsville. Mr. Orner showed pictures of last year's reunion and Mr. Bosserman had pictures of old school buildings.

The closing prayer was given by E. D. Bushman of the class of 1920.

The attendance of 71 set a new record for the event. Attendance figures for previous reunions are: 1958, 39; 1959, 36; 1960, 45; 1961, 52; 1962, 59.

Mrs. Elaine Johnson, 39, entered the hospital six months ago weighing 315 pounds.

The reducing treatment at the West Los Angeles hospital included a 117-day fast. Doctors say it may be the longest time anyone has gone without food on a diet regimen. During this time she took nothing but water and vitamins.

"I feel great," Mrs. Johnson said as she came down the hospital steps Monday.

tend, no tests. You could concentrate on any area you wanted. I also found a foreign student has a special position in Germany. You receive a sort of ID card which gives you admission to theaters, museums, etc., at fantastic reductions in price.

"I found too that when a professor says something good the students rap on the table to applaud. When they disapprove of what he has to say they hiss or snicker. This I found most disconcerting and embarrassing. I heard Pastor Martin Neimoller speak. I thought that for what he had gone through and what he stood for he deserved respect. The students showed a disquieting lack of respect. They got up and walked out slowly, talked, laughed and asked ridiculous questions."

Dr. Richard Newsham presided at the meeting. C. William Harbaugh introduced the speaker. Group singing was led by Dr. Frederick Tilberg accompanied by Dr. Kenneth Smoke. Reports showed a profit of about $340 from the sponsorship of a Totem Pole Playhouse play. Emil Schmidt spoke of the Gettysburg Summer Theater.

FEDERAL JURY INDICTS FOUR ON SPY CHARGE

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal grand jury has indicted four persons on espionage charges and said Russia spent "large sums of money" on the spy operations.

The indictments were returned in Brooklyn Monday against a Russian employee of the United Nations, his wife and a mystery couple from Washington, D.C.

They are accused of conspiring for six years to send to Russia via short-wave radio secret information about U.S. rocket pads, atomic arms shipments, troop movements and naval installations.

The grand jury also accused the defendants of trying to enlist American military and civilian defense personnel as agents.

Indicted were Ivan D. Egorov, 41, a U.N. personnel officer; his wife, Aleksandra, 39, and a Washington couple known as Robert K. and Joy Ann Balch. All have been held without bail.

The four were arrested July 2 — the Egorovs here and the Balchs in Washington.

The government said the Balchs took assumed names and their real identities are not known. At their arraignment, newsmen detected a slight foreign accent in their speech but could not identify it.

Balch borrowed the identity of a Roman Catholic priest in Amsterdam, N.Y. His companion, also known as Joy Ann Garber, known as Joy Ann Garber, also known as name from a Norwalk, Conn., housewife.

sured him that "he will be on schedule by the last of August." He said, "All vital material has been delivered" but that steelworkers had failed to begin erection last week as they had intended. He said that "once the steel is set and the roof is placed subcontractors will come in and things will move much faster." He said he believes the building will be ready for occupancy by January 2 as scheduled.

He told the board that the sewer line from the new cafeteria will be connected by October so that the new facilities may be used before the completion of the project and that other sewer lines to the treatment plant will be connected later in the construction.

TAXPAYERS CONCERNED

President Lowe told Murphy that the board "and the taxpayers are concerned about the lag in activity" on the job and said that "the board expects a full report of progress at each meeting." Murphy said his firm would prod the general contractor.

In response to a question from a board member concerning the wage scale being paid by contractors, Murphy advised the Municipal Authority to have their legal counsel, who did not attend the meeting, obtain information. One board member, however, pointed out that the wage scale would not affect the contract price of the construction.

Murphy said that the masonry is 85 per cent complete and that the mechanical contractor has caught up with the general contractor. The sewer work has just started, he said. He excused the delay in starting by saying that "an underground water problem" delayed preliminary work.

PAYMENTS DUE

Board members received copies of amounts due from the three school districts of the jointure to be paid through the municipal authority to the Gettysburg National Bank. Payments due August 15 are: Fairfield Borough, $1,352; Hamiltonban Twp., $4,752; and Liberty Twp., $1,896. Approximate payments due December 15 for the new building are: Fairfield, $5,513.63; Hamiltonban Twp., $19,379.25; Liberty Twp., $7,732.12. Payments due December 15 for old projects are Fairfield, $5,746; Hamiltonban Twp., $20,196; Liberty Twp., $8,058.

The treasury balance for July was $20,941.37, and the board approved the payment of bills for the month totaling $18,647.21, of which $15,074.60 was for payroll and $894 was for two projects, half of which is to be reimbursed by NDEA. Fuel oil for the month cost $444.46 and electricity was $330.84. Miscellaneous items included assorted supplies and minor repairs and maintenance. The meeting, which adjourned at 11 o'clock, was attended by 11 directors. Five members of the municipal authority attended the joint meeting to award furniture bids and hear the architect's report.

GUARD PATROL KEEPS PEACE IN CAMBRIDGE

By JOHN WOODFIELD
CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—This militia-controlled town saw no prospect for a respite in its racial troubles today despite two peace moves:

1. National Guard leaders headed off a protest march by 300 angry Negroes Monday night by releasing 14 persons, including militant integrationist Gloria Richardson, who had been arrested for trying to picket a drug store.

2. Mayor Calvin W. Mowbray and the City Council appointed a human relations committee to help tackle racial problems. The committee is composed of seven white persons and four Negroes nominated by the Cambridge Non-violent Action Committee.

NEW DEMONSTRATION

Mrs. Richardson called for a new demonstration today.

Mrs. Richardson returned Monday from Annapolis, where Gov. J. Millard Tawes held day-long meetings with Negro and white leaders.

Soon she and Stanley Branche, a field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, appeared on Race Street, the main thoroughfare, with 12 other Negroes.

GUARD LEADER

Col. J. Maurice Tawes of the Guard asked what was going on. "Since no one deems it necessary to resolve the situation, the only thing we can do is to demonstrate," said Branche.

Tawes called attention to the Guard's ban on demonstrations imposed after last week's rioting between Negroes and whites.

The Negroes promptly began picketing Collins' Drugstore, a segregated place. Guardsmen with bayonets swiftly bundled the demonstrators into two weapons carriers and took them to the National Guard Armory at Easton, 6 miles north, where they were held without charge.

CHURCH RALLY

Monday night Negroes rallied at Bethel AME church, demanding release of the 14 and threatening a protest march.

"If we have to die in the streets, at least it can be said we died honorably," said Philip H. Savage, a field secretary of the NAACP.

The Guard set up searchlights to illuminate Pine Street, where Bethel church is located. Tear gas was made ready.

ESCORTS LEADERS

Then Col. Tawes entered the church and escorted two Negro leaders away. He told the two Reginald Robinson and Fred Jackson — the 14 demonstrators would be freed forthwith.

By the time Robinson and Jackson returned, 500 Negroes had gathered outside, facing a force of Guardsmen.

CANCEL MARCH

Jackson hoisted Robinson, a diminutive man, on his shoulders and Robinson told the crowd: "Our people are being released, so we won't march tonight."

The Negroes dispersed and shortly thereafter the 14 were returned to Cambridge.

At Annapolis, Gov. Tawes met with officials of Cambridge, Dorchester County, the National Guard, state police and others.

After the meetings, he said: "It was the consensus that the problem cannot and will not be solved quickly. It is going to take more effort on the part of everyone."

ing a real estate boom, with a Maryland syndicate, anticipating the growth of St. Joseph College into a major Catholic shrine, securing options on hundreds of choice acres for use as commercial sites. New York interests are also reported taking options.

The Sisters of Charity are determined "not to commercialize" Mother Seton, the college, or the shrine. They are firmly opposed to permitting sale of religious items or the seeking of funds to encroach upon the memory of Mother Seton.

COST $12 MILLION

A huge building program is currently under way in which a huge complex of buildings is being raised to house the religious community of the Sisters in what is called the Central House. At present the Central House consists of buildings associated with the college. Once the new construction is complete, the community will move into the new quarters and the old structures will either be razed or converted for college use. The new structure is reportedly costing $12,000,000.

In addition St. Joseph College recently received a grant of $750,000 from the Maryland State legislature for the erection of a science hall. The college must match the state grant.

At present Mother Seton's relics are entombed in copper above the altar in the chapel she herself laid out. Her children are buried in the small cemetery on the college grounds. Her original dwelling the Stone House, erected in 1809, and her second home, The White House, 1810, are campus landmarks.

McLennan-King Annual Reunion

The fifth annual reunion of the McLennan and King families was held in the Great Congregational Presbyterian Church at Huntersburg on Wednesday. Luncheon was served in the chapel connected with the old kirk. Afterward the meeting was called to order by the president, Wm. A. McLennan, and prayer was offered by the Rev. F. E. Taylor of the Presbyterian Church of Gettysburg. Many letters of regret from members who could not be present were read by Miss Annie H. Major. Miss Virginia McCurdy, of Bellefonte, exhibited the old King Bible, printed in 1770, which has been in the hands of the family continuously since that time. A number of interesting articles were also shown, among which was a little dress in which four generations of the McLennan family had been baptized.

Biglerville: Edwin C. Roth is building a bowling alley on West York street thirty feet by ninety-six feet. The new drug store building of F. K. Heiges is now under roof and will be occupied by Druggist Charles G. Miller when completed. The Salvation Army of Philadelphia and Baltimore will open camp here in Stonestifer's Grove commencing July 11 and continuing over two Sundays. Merchant George H. Knouse is building a two-story brick dwelling house adjoining his store property on South Main Street. He will add about one thousand square feet of floor space to his present store room. More than two hundred people were entertained here during the anniversary at Gettysburg. During the afternoon and night of the evening of July 3rd, 411 automobiles passed through here.

New Press Installed: In pursuance of its general policy to give its patrons the best possible service The Times has just installed a new Duplex Q-Q double angle bar perfecting press, which will print and fold either four, six or eight-page papers at the rate of 6,000 per hour. During the past fiscal year The Times has added to its equipment the latest and best machinery that the market affords at a total expense approximating $12,000.

College Church Elects Pastor: The College Lutheran congregation on Sunday morning elected Dr. A. E. Wagner, of Altoona, as pastor by a vote of 64 to 18. The salary was placed at $2,000 and parsonage. Dr. Wagner is widely known in Gettysburg. Since the resignation of Rev. Henry Anstadt as pastor of the church in December, 1911, the professors at the Seminary and ministers from a distance have filled the pulpit on the various Sundays. Three pastors have been elected, all declining. Rev. W. E. Stahler of Lebanon; Rev. C. P. Wiles of Washington, now of Philadelphia; and more recently Rev. Charles R. Trowbridge, of Easton. The salary received by Rev. Mr. Anstadt was $1,400 and the use of the parsonage on Chambersburg St. It is understood that of the proposed increase to be offered Rev. Mr. Wagner, the College will contribute $200 and the Seminary $100. A new parsonage is in course of erection on Springs Avenue to take the place of the former one on Chambersburg St., which was sold some time ago.

ALIBIS
The shifting of responsibility is the curse of all time. Blaming someone else, or hiding away under fire gets no one anywhere, or anything.

There are those who seem to have the hobby of collecting and putting in reserve an entire collection of alibis. "I didn't know that," "I thought you meant the other fellow," "My watch stopped," "I had a bad night," "I missed the bus," "I didn't think it was so important," "I forgot," are but a few. All are bad!

It has been said that hell is paved with good intentions, but if it is, I am ready to state that the curb is laid with alibis.

The damaging thing about alibis is that they never do any good. They always harm the one who brings one out. Why fool with them then?

I have in mind a young man brilliant in mind, kindly in spirit, who might be a very successful person, but he is loaded down with alibis. He will take a job and everything will go along fine for awhile, until he begins to hand out one of those alibis of his. Then there is disappointment and confusion, and soon he has to hunt another job. No one wants an alibiard around.

We all make mistakes. Some of us make the same one twice — which is a tragedy in itself — but if we learn a valuable lesson thereby, and don't try to duck the responsibility, we go forward. The one who offers an alibi, however, always takes a backward step.

It's a long, long way around an alibi. Many people get confused and lose their way in the one they have to offer. But every time an alibi is offered, character suffers. And an alibi usually makes many others suffer.

If you want to grow, earn respect and deserved recognition, leave the alibi alone. They are loaded with dynamite!

THE EXAMPLE
With brazen lips he told his lies
In petty rage he swore,
He little thought that youthful eyes

See daily more and more,
But little Tom, he loved so well,
Disturbed him by the lies he'd tell.

He sent his child to Sunday School,
"Tis right to go," said he,
"A boy should learn the Golden Rule

If happy he would be."
But Tom observed, though he was sent,
To church his father never went.

Tom off was told he mustn't say
The things his father said,
He heard good counsel day by day

But in his little head
There ran the thought the things forbid
Were just the things his parents did.

Now hear the father's doleful sighs:
"Our boy is such a care!
He had deliberately lied!
His mother's in despair,
So many faults has little Tom!
We wonder where he gets them from."

T. S. Swamley, New Oxford, has acquired sufficient fame by his inventions to be shown as one of the features of the Pathe Weekly picture films. He was a resident of Gettysburg for a year or more during which time he was errand boy at the Eckert Store and delighted the little people of town at Christmas time by playing Santa Claus. Young Swamley is now 20 years old and is known by his adopted name of Bruce Swamley Eytling, of New York. He has designed and built a 4-wheel roller skate, carrying on it a battery motor which is driven by two storage; also a 2-wheel skate which is driven by a 1/2 horse power single cylinder gasoline engine, the smallest practical engine in use. This skate develops a speed of 20-25 miles an hour and is so light and compact that it can be carried around under the arm, weighing 40 pounds.

M'KINLEY HAS DOUBLE MATCH IN NET PLAY

RIVER FOREST, Ill. (AP)—Chuck McKinley, America's top-ranked amateur tennis player, is relying on his excellent timing to keep a pair of tennis dates at the River Forest Club today.

The hard-hitting 1963 Wimbledon champion who recently returned from Sweden to leave his St. Louis home in time for his first round afternoon match in the 54th National Clay Court Championships against fellow St. Louisan James Parker.

McKinley said Monday that he would not mind at all playing an extra match. If he wins his first, he'll meet rugged Norman Perry of Los Angeles in the second round.

MISSON ON MONDAY

McKinley was one of five seeded men's players who failed to show up Monday. Second-seeded Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif.; Marty Riessen of Chicago, No. 3; William Lenoir of Tucson, sixth, and eighth-seeded Arthur Ashe of Los Angeles, the lone Negro entrant, also will start today.

McKinley, 21-year-old senior of Trinity University in Texas, may get a run for his money from Edward (Butch) Newman, No. 4 man on the school squad.

Newman, 19-year-old junior and a junior Davis Cup team member, pulled off the only upset by eliminating fifth-rated William Bond of La Jolla, Calif.

Newman credited his 6-3, 6-2 triumph to "a steady game" and the fact he was playing on a new type surface. The surfaces this year are made of pressed chipped marble, blended with gypsum-like substance.

Celebrates Her 109th Birthday

LOWER MERION, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Anna V. Welch celebrated her birthday Monday with an automobile ride to Reading, about 60 miles away. That's not unusual for most people including Mrs. Welch, even though she's 109 years old.

"She has all her faculties and reads without glasses," says her son-in-law, Dr. Paul Pittenger. She goes on 200-mile automobile trips without showing any wear and tear.

On her 100th birthday she took a plane ride and says she's still "going at a pretty spry pace."

Mrs. Welch couldn't say to what she attributes long life but her son-in-law attributes it partly to her early life of hard work on a farm. She was born in Pattenburg, Hunterdon County, N.J.

HEART FAILS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The man who died of heart failure Monday eight days after undergoing a lung transplant has been identified as Regis J. Sismour, 44, of suburban lagomora.

Sismour, given a week to live, received a lung from a man who had died just an hour before. That was the second such operation on record.

He is now building a 1-horse power twin cylinder gasoline engine of aluminum and using the well known racing skate of J. J. Young. This skate will develop 35-40 miles an hour and is for road and track racing. He has given several exhibitions on the New York Roller Skating Rinks and made successful demonstrations for the motion picture people.

Gift To Church: William Devine, Hanover, has generously donated a green Italian marble Holy Water font, a veritable art work from the Dapatri Studios of Ecclesiastical Art, New York City, to St. Mary's Church, Fairfield.

Today In Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP)—A state Senate Democrat seeking election to Congress has accused the Scranton administration of creating a general fund deficit by delaying deposits of revenue receipts until after the end of the fiscal year June 30.

Sen. Fred B. Rooney of Bethlehem told the Senate Monday night that he has proof that the administration added some $6 million to the deficit by not depositing funds received in the old fiscal year until after the start of the new period, July 1.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Senate-passed bill authorizing the state to take over the Kinzua Bridge and adjoining property for a state park was approved Monday by the House Highways Committee.

The measure includes a $50,000 appropriation.

However, a similar House bill has been resting in the House Appropriations Committee since June 7 and it is expected the Senate bill would have to go there too, before being brought to any final vote in the House.

The House bill included a $100,000 appropriation.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The revenue department reports $1,041,098 in taxes has been received by the state from the two harness race tracks now in operation.

The department's pari-mutuel tabulation released Monday covered 32 days of racing at Liberty Bell track in Philadelphia and 14 days at Meadows Race track in Washington County.

Some $3.2 million was bet at Liberty Bell last week, according to department statistics. The state took in $190,850 on the activity—$163,584 on the wagering and $27,266 on the breakage.

The Meadows track handled $1,025,084 in bets last week, down from the $1,200,360 for the opening week. The state collected $38,285 from Meadows last week, compared with $67,899 the previous week. Attendance dropped from 44,595 to 32,320.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Legislative developments at home have forced Gov. Scranton to cancel plans to attend the annual governors conference next week in Miami, Fla.

Gov. Scranton issued a brief statement Monday saying: "I had hoped to be able to attend, but I have decided to stay here and work with the legislature."

The legislature, which has set July 31 as the target date for adjournment, still has the bulk of the administration's program on which to act.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Seating capacity of Pennsylvania State University's indoor arena will be increased from 5,500 to 7,500 when work is completed on a $1,375,119 project there.

The General State Authority awarded the contracts Monday for construction of an addition to the physical education building at Penn State.

The contracts went to: General construction—Earl L. Camp, Inc., Chambersburg, $1,005,000; heating and ventilating—Herre Brothers, Inc., Harrisburg, $163,595; plumbing—Herre Brothers, $35,113; electrical—W. Floyd Bush, Martinsburg, $171,411.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Forests and Waters Department is planning a $743,000 work project at Gifford Pinchot State Park in York County soon after Labor Day.

The park lake will be drained to permit placement of water and sewer lines and the installation of a flood control gate at the dam.

The department said Monday total cost of the sewer and water lines has been estimated at $733,000. The flood control gate is expected to cost about $10,000.

CHANGES ARE PROPOSED IN SCHOOL BILLS

HARRISBURG (AP)—A special administration legislative committee was prepared to recommend today that proposed increases in teacher salaries be stretched over a two-year period.

It also proposed that state aid to public schools be increased an extra $5 million beyond the Scranton administration's recommendations.

The committee was to meet today to make a final determination on the issue that has held up action on salaries and subsidies for three weeks.

Sources said committee members felt subsidies could be boosted another $5 million this year—making a total increase of approximately $35 million—in light of the improved fiscal situation when the last fiscal period ended June 30.

The final balance on the last budget period freed an estimated $7 million for new spending this year. On top of that, the House Appropriations Committee cut some $3 million from Gov. Scranton's regular appropriation requests for the new year.

The governor had included $36 million extra for schools in his requests.

To resolve the complaints that some districts couldn't afford a full increase in teacher salaries now, the committee was considering stretching the increases over a two-year or three-year period.

By stretching out the salary boosts, the committee felt it would lessen their impact on districts now paying low salaries which would have to meet a part of the pay raises themselves.

The plan was to boost starting salaries to a minimum of $4,500—against the present $3,600 minimum—and provide annual raises of $200 to $300 for teachers already in service.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Forests and Waters Department is planning a $743,000 work project at Gifford Pinchot State Park in York County soon after Labor Day.

The park lake will be drained to permit placement of water and sewer lines and the installation of a flood control gate at the dam.

The department said Monday total cost of the sewer and water lines has been estimated at $733,000. The flood control gate is expected to cost about $10,000.

Another bill passed and sent to the Senate would, limit the use of special registration plates for newspaper and television photographers to bonafide news media (189-7).

Introduced in the House Monday was a bill providing additional bans on billboards along Pennsylvania highways. The new regulations would apply to limited access highways. The federal interstate roads, covered by a 1961 act would not be affected.

Rep. Ralph J. Down, R-Mercer, submitted a resolution in the House asking for a study of the impact of state taxes on border industries. He mentioned that some tax, such as on sales, alcoholic beverages and cigarettes, may be higher in Pennsylvania than in neighboring states.

He suggested that the joint state government commission, the legislature's permanent research agency, study the effect of these taxes on businesses in border areas.

PUBLIX CHAMP EYES AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—National Public Links champion Bob Lunn has never taken a golf lesson and he has no plans to turn pro.

The 18-year-old San Franciscan, who until the weekend had won only a few northern California tournaments, blossomed into a national champion Saturday when he held off Steve Oppermann of South San Francisco 1-up in a 36-hole final.

"I just try to keep from bogeying any hole," said the soft-spoken, lanky youngster. The formula paid off as he carded fewer birdies than Oppermann, but won seven holes that his 21-year-old foe bogied.

EYES AMATEUR TABLE

The victory qualifies him for the national amateur championship—his next major appearance.

He played the 6,702-yard par 36-36-72 Haggins Oaks Golf course in 39-34-72 Saturday morning and 36-37-73 in the afternoon.

After qualifying at nine-over-par, Lunn played his 132 holes of match play four-under par.

Lunn hit the 450-yard final green in two, left his first putt four feet short, then, although "I don't know what was in my mind," he rapped the winning putt squarely into the cup.

Lunn plans to attend San Jose State College, probably on a golf scholarship. Beyond that, his golf plans are not set.

NO PANIC YET AMONG GIANTS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Although the Los Angeles Dodgers appear on the verge of turning the National League race into a runaway, there's no panic among the defending champion San Francisco Giants.

The slumping Giants lost a doubleheader to the Pittsburgh Pirates Monday night 2-1 and 4-1, and dropped into third place—seven games behind the Dodgers and one game back of second-place Chicago.

The defeats were the fourth and fifth of the current Giant road trip and their 13th and 14th defeats in their last 23 games. But

GETTYSBURG LITTLE LEAGUE

Trailing by two runs going into the bottom of the fifth inning, the Elks pushed across six runs to outlast the Rotary 9-5 Monday evening on the Little League diamond. The loss knocks the Rotary out of the race for the title.

Ron Cullison paved the way in the big fifth frame when he socked a two-run double to left as the Elks took advantage of five hits, two walks and two Rotary miscues.

Teddy Maitland went the distance on the hill for the Elks to capture the win, his second in five decisions. Ron Kuykendall, also going the route, is charged with the loss, his third in as many verdicts.

Bob Smith collected a pair of hits to pace the winner's attack while Les Lindeman and Dave Wisotzky belted the same number for the Rotary.

ODDS SHORTER ON LISTON AS FIGHT NEARS

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston views his return match with Floyd Patterson something like—and get this—marriage.

The Big Bear explained his intriguing bit of philosophy in regard to the title fight with Patterson Monday.

"The first time, in Chicago, we got married. Now, this time, I'll get a divorce and I won't have to bother about him anymore."

PLANS EARLY KO

Liston, continues to sell Patterson and his chances of regaining the title short—and ironically, he doesn't do the fight next Monday and its gate appeal in the closed circuit television money any good, either.

He still says he will knock Patterson out in short order. Liston was asked if he has trained to go 15 rounds.

"After five, I'm quitting," said Sonny with a straight face.

3 TO 1 NOW

A moment later, he declared, this time with no humorous overtones, "It won't go five rounds. It wouldn't go 15 if I broke both my hands."

To perk up any short memories, he required Liston two minutes and six seconds to dispose of Patterson in Chicago last Sept. 25. Oddly enough, however, Patterson has picked up a surprising amount of support in the Las Vegas betting rings. He started out as an 8-1 underdog but the last quotation had it down to 3-1, on Liston, of course.

Bo Davies blasted a triple with the bases loaded to drive in three runs in the bottom of the second inning to highlight the 6-4 victory gained by the Exchange Club over the Phillips 66 outfit Monday evening. The victory enabled the Exchangeites to increase their first place lead to one and one-half games.

Tony Hoffman poked a homer for the winners in the opening inning.

Davey Eisenhower led the Phillips' attack, accounting for three of the eight hits secured by the losers. Only one error occurred in the well-played game.

PETERS HURLS ONE-HITTER TO WHIP ORIOLES

By JOE MOOSHIL

Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—Some make it quick. Some never do. With others it takes time as in the case of Gary Peters of the Chicago White Sox.

Peters, a 26-year-old rookie all though he has had four previous trials with the Sox, pitched a one-hitter Monday night in dealing the Baltimore Orioles a 4-0 defeat.

The only hit off Peters was a line single to center by opposing pitcher Robin Roberts with two out in the third. Roberts was Baltimore's only base runner. Peters didn't issue a walk and struck out 13.

QUIZ LOPEZ

Before the game someone asked Manager Al Lopez if he was doing the right thing in using Peters against the Orioles who had a 20-4 record against left-handers.

"It's his turn and he goes," said Lopez, realizing that the only other southpaw to start and finish against Baltimore this season was New York's Whitey Ford who recorded a 4-3 victory.

Later Lopez revealed why he had no qualms in using Peters, who boosted his record to 7-5 and increased his season strikeout total to 104

Split Shows Soviet Is Less Reckless Than Chinese, Much More Sophisticated

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The efforts of the Russians and Red Chinese to explain their split would look like a farce in the use of language if the split itself did not have such immense significance for the future.

In their attacks on each other both sides were obviously writing for the history books to justify their positions. This was still no excuse for their long-windedness.

On June 4 the Chinese banded the Russians—particularly Premier Khrushchev—in a statement which took four full pages when reprinted in an American newspaper. It was a scathing criticism of the Soviet Union.

NOT BY NAME
Yet, it hardly mentioned the Soviet Union by name. Instead, it turned its scorn on "certain persons."

It ridiculed the Russians for accepting Western notions, condemned them as unrealistic, accused them of long and repeated hostility to Red China, and, in short, accused them of undermining world communism.

Over this past weekend the Russians replied in a 35,000-word open letter to "all Communist parties of the world." The Russians indicated the Red Chinese directly, thus demonstrating how much the split has widened.

SAVAGE ANSWER
This was a savage answer which accused the Red Chinese of being anti-white racists, of falsifications and distortions, of ingratitude for Soviet help and of undermining the unity of world communism.

In between the two documents the Russians and Chinese on July 5 opened talks in Moscow to settle their differences. The weekend publication of Soviet feelings showed how little the talks achieved.

In fact, the Soviet statement said the Chinese delegates to the talks were making the split worse.

SPLIT SUMMARY
If that split—as it appears on the surface—could be summarized in a few paragraphs, this would be it:

1. Khrushchev, realizing the United States and Russia are so advanced in nuclear weapons that a war between them would eliminate both and much of the world besides, insists peaceful coexistence with the West is possible.

The Red Chinese say it is impossible and that capitalism is aggressive and must be overcome by force. The Russians say the Chinese don't seem to have any idea what a nuclear war means.

PEACEFUL PLAN
As the years pile on, the mail piles up. The more mail you get, the less there's worthwhile in it.

LITTLE MONEY
One of the things you find out about mail as you grow older is that, after you leave college, very few people in this world send you money in a letter. They will ask you to send them money in a letter, but they won't send it to you.

Now and then you might catch the government people off guard and get them to send you a tax refund by mail—but that happens more and more seldom as you grow older too.

AGE BRACKET
The nature of a man's mail seems to be determined largely by his age bracket.

A young businessman at the start of his career is flooded with invitations to borrow from loan agencies, subscribe to naughty art magazines, and join keen groups of guys and gals in a gay.

MASS MERGERS COULD IMPAIR SCHOOL VALUE

By FRED WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Of all the many people who have been drawn into the compulsory school reorganization controversy, attorney Raymond Pitcairn of Jenkintown and Bryn Athyn in Montgomery County has become best identified with the opposition group.

He has thrown into the fight the same drive and intensity that has marked a long, prominent career in both politics and law.

Pitcairn is the motivating force behind the citizens for preservation of local control of schools.

SUMS UP VIEWS
He was asked the other day to sum up his views on the issue.

He sent along the following, which we quote in part:

"Local control and representation in those matters which are nearest to our homes and communities and which are vital to the future of our families and states—these are matters of principle which by their very nature are above political and partisan considerations."

QUALITY SCHOOLS
"It is recognized that some school districts in the Commonwealth have a difficult time in maintaining quality schools. In many instances these are the smaller (and almost invariably the poorer) school districts."

"However, the bureaucratic approach of solving all these problems by compulsory mergers does not take into account and makes no provision for the other steps which might reasonably be taken to solve the problems of these poor school districts through an approach which does not involve compulsory merger."

"These other steps take study, time, effort and wise economic planning. These steps require a great effort but in the long run they are the only ones which can assure a basic program of quality education throughout the Commonwealth."

COMPULSORY MERGERS
"Certain legislators seem bent on compulsory mergers as the only solution and apparently are unmindful of the disastrous consequences which will result from the compulsory mergers both to better education and to the principle of home rule."

"The ratification of this Legislature of the principle of compulsory mergers will provide those bureaucrats who are ever advocating more centralized power with the precedent they have long sought for to erode local self-government of our townships and the boroughs and to replace the powers of local self-government with centralized big government."

"Those who believe that mass mergers will improve education frequently cite Dr. James Conant's studies. Yet in one of those studies Dr. Conant wrote: 'The road to better schools will be paved by the collective action of the LOCAL citizenry in thousands of communities. The responsibility for the upgrading of our schools cannot be passed to the state legislators.'"

"... increasing thousands of private citizens... have seriously considered the consequences of mechanical enlargement of our school districts."

"These consequences include the loss of personal participation by parents in their children's schools; the lack of knowledge of community needs on the part of boards governing sprawling districts; the loss of personal contact between the teacher of large classes and their parents; the long hours wasted daily in school bus transportation."

"Should these be substituted for the advantages of the smaller districts—individual and community concern for the needs of our children? On paper, bigness promises extra service; but these, many of them frills, cannot replace the fundamental relationship of the teacher in personal charge of smaller classes and in close contact with parents and school directors."

Economists Warn JFK On Need For Jobs For Negroes

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's top economist warned Monday that the Negro drive for civil rights and job equality will be "frustrated and frustrating" unless the country provides millions of new jobs.

Chairman Walter W. Heller of the President's Council of Economic Advisers said Negro unemployment—now double the white rate—will fall twice as fast as that of whites if a tax cut paves the way to full employment.

By providing equal hiring opportunities, the nation can expand its output by $14.5 billion a year, Heller told The Associated Press in an interview.

REA LEADER RAPS PUBLIC POWER PRICE

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Norman M. Clapp, administrator of the Rural Electrification Administration, reports that rural power co-ops are concerned over the rates commercial power concerns are charging them for electric energy.

Writing in his agency's monthly magazine, "Rural Lines," the REA chief says local units financed by government loans now pay $100 million a year for such power. This compares with $37 million in 1950.

"Despite the tremendous increase in electric energy purchased, the average price paid to commercial companies by rural electric systems decreased only 17 per cent between 1950 and 1962," Clapp wrote. "Present rates average 0.77 cents per kilowatt hour compared with 0.93 cents in 1950."

RATES OUT OF LINE
Clapp said present rates do not reflect the actual advances in technology and volume that have taken place in the power industry. But spokesmen for the commercial concerns disagree with the REA chief. They say the rates charged by them are in line with production and distribution costs.

"REA borrowers are legitimately concerned because the power supply comprises 43 per cent of their costs of providing service," he wrote.

The rural power cooperatives get their energy supplies from three sources—their own generating plants, public power sources and commercial power companies.

Clapp said that since inauguration of the REA system in the mid-1930s, the cooperatives have

BURNHAM IS NEW PREXY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Donald C. Burnham, recognized as an authority on manufacturing techniques, is the new president and chief executive officer of Westinghouse Electric Corp.

The firm said Monday Burnham, 48, was elected to succeed Mark W. Cresap Jr., who resigned because of ill health.

Burnham, formerly vice president in charge of Westinghouse's industrial group, is "strongly oriented toward manufacturing quality and sales," a company spokesman said, adding:

"That's his main strength."

Cresap, 53, advised the board of directors his health no longer would allow him to continue his duties. Cresap first was ill with hepatitis, then recently was hospitalized for treatment of a gastric hemorrhage.

He joined Westinghouse in 1951 and was named president in 1958 and chief executive officer the next year.

TWO CONVICTS ASK $4 MILLION IN DAMAGES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Two Western State Penitentiary inmates say they originated the idea for the "snap-top" beer can and want $4 million in damages from a beer company because, the convicts contend, it "pilfered" the idea.

A petition was filed in U. S. District Court Monday asking permission for Richard Thompson and John Ricks to file suit against Pittsburgh Brewing Co.

The petition stated that two representatives of Pittsburgh Brewing, makers of Iron City beer, talked with Thompson and Ricks in prison about another of their ideas—"a new type bottle cap which would require no other opener than the thumb of the human hand."

The inmates said they corresponded with the firm in the spring of 1961 about the bottle cap. The interview, they said, took place sometime before June 9, 1961.

"The idea of a beer can that would not require an opener was also discussed," the petition said, and "this latter idea was pilfered and later used by the company illegally and without compensation."

The company declined comment. Judge Joseph P. Willson took the request under advisement.

B'Nai B'Rith Eyes College Aid Plan

STARLIGHT, Pa. (AP)—A proposal to enable college students to earn their tuition in return for community service work was outlined over the weekend by Dr. Max F. Baer, the national director of the B'Nai B'Rith youth organization.

Dr. Baer, of Washington, speaking at the 18th annual convention of the Jewish service organization's young adults, said the program would "enable many deserving young people to cope more successfully with the problems of rising college costs and at the same time give emphasis to the importance of volunteer service as a positive educational experience for the individual student."

Moscow-Peking Split Gives Optimistic Air To Meeting On Nuclear Testing Bans

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP)—Jovial and apparently optimistic Premier Khrushchev personally opened talks Monday on a limited nuclear test ban agreement with special envoys of President Kennedy and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Sitting in a Kremlin conference room with U.S. Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman and Britain's Lord Hailsham, the Soviet leader quipped: "Shall we start off by signing the agreement right away?"

Harriman shoved a pencil and pad across the table toward Khrushchev. Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko grinned to his chief and said: "Sign it and leave it to be filled in."

10-DAY SESSION

The conference is expected to last 10 days.

Khrushchev's mood seemed to share the optimism of both the British and Americans about the success in agreeing on a prohibition which would bar nuclear test explosions in the air, in space and under water.

The Western side saw no prospect of getting a complete ban to cover underground explosions also.

BRIGHTENED BY SPLIT

Increasing the prospects for an agreement was the worsening split between the Soviet Union and Red China, Westerners here believed.

News photographers were allowed to enter the conference room before the actual talks began to take pictures of the negotiators.

The conference began with nine representatives on the U.S. and British side and five on the Soviet side.

Both Western and Communist circles seemed optimistic about chances of agreeing on a ban of nuclear tests in the air, in space and under water.

READILY POLICED

Such a pact could be readily policed because nuclear explosions under any of these conditions can be detected from great distances. It would also outlaw the tests which produce radioactive nuclear fallout.

Khrushchev in a speech in East Berlin July 2 approved a Western proposal for an unpoliced partial ban. Underground tests were exempted to avoid the thorny issue of on-site inspection.

At the time Khrushchev approved a partial test ban, he revived the Soviet proposal for a non-aggression treaty between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Communist Warsaw Pact alliance. He said the test ban and the non-aggression pact should be signed simultaneously, but U.S. officials were not sure that he was making a non-aggression treaty the price of a test ban.

SEEK CLARIFICATION

Western observers expected the opening round of the secret three-power talks at the Kremlin would clarify whether Khrushchev would insist on the two treaties as a package deal.

Harriman and Hailsham made it clear on their arrival Sunday that they were not authorized to negotiate a non-aggression pact.

Western opposition to the non-aggression pact stems partly from the fact that it would tend to seal the division of Germany and force Western recognition of Communist East Germany.

Khrushchev appeared to have cleared the way for a test ban accord by administering a huge blast last weekend at his Chinese rivals for leadership in the Communist camp.

A 35,000-word letter on the Soviet ideological dispute with Red China, published here Sunday, vigorously rejected Peking's militant stand and defended Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence line.

SPY IDENTITY IS CONFUSED BY RUSSIANS

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)—A Soviet Embassy spokesman Monday injected an element of confusion regarding the identity of the Russian master spy who defected to the West 8 months ago.

In an unusual conversation, he told reporters that a man named Anatoli Alexander Dolynitsyn worked at the Soviet Embassy in 1961 but that he was not a defector and is actually living in Moscow.

The British government last week circulated a notice to British editors describing the defector by that name. U.S. security agents in Washington were said to be angry because the defector's identity came to light.

DECLINES COMMENT

A Foreign Office spokesman at a news conference declined to discuss whether the Americans were upset at the way the British handled the Dolynitsyn case.

The spokesman also refused to say whether Dolynitsyn was on the diplomatic list when he served in the embassy for nine months beginning in January, 1961.

Whatever the defector's name is, there seems no question but what the West regards him as a valuable man. There have been hints that he is being elaborately protected.

The Sunday telegraph said without attribution that the defector is expected to give evidence to Lord Denning's inquiry into security aspects of the Profumo affair.

Disgraced War Minister John Profumo shared the favors of playgirl Christine Keeler with the former assistant Soviet naval attaché Yevgeny Ivanov.

Ivanov, now back in Russia, reportedly is in disgrace himself. Ivanov and Dolynitsyn were at the embassy at the same time.

LUNG PLANT PATIENT DIES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The second man on record to have a new lung transplanted into his body died Monday in Presbyterian University Hospital, a hospital spokesman said.

According to the spokesman the 44-year-old patient died of heart failure induced by shock and blood pressure changes. His identity has not been made public.

The operation took place July 7 at the hospital.

The new lung, taken from a person who had just died, was in a phase of being accepted, the spokesman continued, but the remaining lung was not healthy enough to hold over during the transition stage.

The only other lung transfer on record was performed three weeks ago in Mississippi. The patient died shortly after from an unrelated disorder.

In the Pittsburgh case, the patient was suffering from emphysema, a lung condition, and was given only about a week to live before the operation took place.

A Lovelier You

FRUITS OF DIET. If you are reducing this summer, be sure to step up your intake of fruit and juices. There are many sound reasons for it. In the first place, fresh fruits are at their peak of satisfying goodness at this season and, not incidentally, at their lowest cost.

Moreover, fresh fruit appeases the appetite more readily than less chewy foods. But in any form, fruit is vital for its high vitamin content to the summertime dieter. She really needs an extra share of vitamins to keep her healthy and vigorous under oppressive weather conditions.

But perhaps of more interest to a get-slim-quick reducer is the fact that fruits and juices fall into the lower calorie brackets. Some tote up to less than others, as chart shows:

5c Juices: One-half cup orange or grapefruit juice; scant one-half cup pineapple juice.

100c Fresh Fruits: Large apple, banana, one-half cup blueberries, one-half cantaloupe, 20 cherries, one-half small grapefruit, 25 grapes, three peaches, two pears, one-half cup strawberries,* medium slice watermelon. (*Items include one-half teaspoon sugar.)

100c Canned Fruits: One-half cup applesauce, two apricots, one-half cup cherries, one peach, one pear, one slice pineapple. (Count includes one tablespoon juice. Sweetened with sugar-substitute or waterpacked, canned fruits offer a larger helping for the same calorie cost.)

100c Frozen Fruits: One-half cup peaches, raspberries, strawberries. Clearly, you can get more satisfaction from fruit for your calorie outlay than most other foods. A tiny chocolate peppermint, for instance, that costs 100 calories.

Sees Compulsory Rail Solution

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz says the four-year-old dispute over railroad work rules is headed toward a compulsory solution because both the carriers and the unions are guilty of "a failure of responsibility."

"There is no affirmative attempt by either side in this situation to do anything about settling it even at this hour," Wirtz said Sunday as a special presidential panel prepared to sift the facts in the jobs tangle.

"There has been at this point an apparent assumption by both parties that somebody else, the government, the Congress, whoever it may be, is going to decide this," the secretary said in a televised interview.

Still, Wirtz added, he hopes that "when both of these parties are looking down the gun barrel" of possible congressional action, "there is going to be a real facing up to the implications of the fact that if they don't settle, the prospect is something which will weaken the whole institution of collective bargaining."

ROCKY BEGINS CAMPAIGN FOR NOMINATION

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has challenged Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., to an all-out liberal vs. conservative fight for the 1964 Republican presidential nomination.

In a policy statement tantamount to announcing his candidacy, the New York governor said Sunday the Goldwater strategy is to try to weld conservative, Southern and Western support while writing off Northern states. This, Rockefeller said, "would not only defeat the Republican party in 1964 but would destroy it altogether."

Rockefeller said it was incredible that the Republicans would offer such an alternative to the "unprincipled opportunism that has captured the Democratic party."

DISCLAIMS RESPONSIBILITY

He added: "That alternative will never be found in a party of extremism, a party of sectionalism, a party of racism, a party that disclaims responsibility for most of the population before it even starts its campaign for their support."

Goldwater, who was not named in the statement, made no immediate response. But associates said they interpreted Rockefeller's attack as a declaration of war they were certain the senator would accept, even though he remains an unannounced belligerent.

They added that if Goldwater is writing off the industrial North as Rockefeller charged, the New York governor is giving up on Republican chances to collect electoral votes in the South.

OPENING GUN

Rockefeller's blast is regarded in Washington as the opening gun of a vigorous comeback campaign for the nomination. He was considered by many observers the leading contender until his recent marriage to a divorced mother of four children.

In the period between his reelection as governor last year and his remarriage, Rockefeller tried with some success to warm up the conservatives to his cause by making what many of his listeners called "good Republican speeches" in the Midwest.

But the New York governor's attack on what he said were extremist views in the party indicated he has decided his best chance for the nomination is to champion the liberal viewpoint and sharpen his division with the conservatives.

OPEN MIDDLE GROUND

This seemed to leave open the middle ground where Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, said Sunday Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., comes closest among possible presidential nominees to representing the party consensus.

Taft, son of the late conservative senator from Ohio who lost the presidential nomination to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952, said on a television program that neither Rockefeller nor Goldwater represents such a consensus.

Morton, who served as GOP national chairman three years under Eisenhower and now is head of the party's senatorial campaign committee, generally is listed as a moderate. He has supported most Kennedy administration foreign policies but has been critical of the President's handling of the Cuban problem.

In emphasizing his division with the conservatives, Rockefeller called on Republicans to unite in opposition to "the radical right, lunatic fringe," which he said is trying to take over the party.

He denounced the John Birch Society's viewpoint and criticized as a form of totalitarianism the procedures of the recent San Francisco convention of the National Young Republicans Federation where delegates whooped it up for Goldwater.

COSTLY SPORTS WEAR SHOWN IN N.Y. SUNDAY

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

AP Fashion Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Sports wear so dreadfully expensive, says its designer John Weitz blushing, that it requires a good sport of a husband to finance it was shown Sunday to the nation's fashion writers.

Among the items were the world's ritziest track suits, the chic-est judo suit for home defense, the sharpest fisherman's coat and undoubtedly the dandiest smoking jacket.

The event was the second day of fall fashion previews which are a part of an American Designer Series arranged by Eleanor Lambert.

Obviously, loafing will be an important sport borrowed from the Regency era if wife's velvet loafing costumes are widely copied, as they are likely to be.

Also newsworthy was a skirt made of hamster pelts. There were bulky handknit sweaters with horseshoe necklines and unbanded blouson bodices.

FBI ARRESTS BANK ROBBER AT N.J. MOTEL

ATLANTIC CITY (AP)—A nattily-dressed man has been arraigned in connection with a $142,746 stickup after his arrest in a motel here.

FBI agents said Roger John John Uguro, 24, formerly of Orange, was unarmed and offered no resistance when he was seized as he left the motel with a girl Sunday.

R. W. Bachman, special agent in charge of the Newark office of the FBI, said Uguro, a Negro, was accused of taking part in the robbery of the Eastover Branch of the Citizens Bank of Maryland in Oton Hill, Md., last Monday.

4 STAGE ROBBERY

Four Negro men staged the robbery, armed with a sawed-off shotgun and other weapons. A fifth man drove the getaway car. Bachman said.

According to Bachman, $610 was found on Uguro and $17,000 was recovered less than an hour after Uguro's arrest in the home of his father, John Uguro, in Orange.

Bachman said agents also found a hypodermic needle and a quantity of narcotics in Uguro's suitcase.

USES ALIAS

Uguro was registered at the motel as John Mason, the name of the estranged husband of the girl found with him. Bachman said. The girl was not arrested.

The prisoner was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner William E. Stringer and held in lieu of $50,000 bail.

The FBI arrested a Philadelphia fur salesman and his wife Thursday in connection with the robbery and said $2,480 of the stolen money was found in the home of relatives of the couple, identified as Mr. and Mrs. James D. Davis.

After the robbery, the bandits fled to Washington, D. C., the FBI said. The getaway car was recovered later that day.

STATE AREAS ARE INJURED BY LAW WAIVER

By JOSEPH COYNE

Associated Press Special Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., urged President Kennedy Monday to rescind a Defense Department waiver of the Bay American Act for Canadian suppliers.

Under that law, a contract cannot be awarded to a foreign firm unless its bid is more than 6 per cent below an American firm's bid. The President has power to waive sections of the act under some circumstances.

Scott said waiver of the act for Canada has already hurt plants at Youngstown, Ohio, and Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Scottsdale, Pa., which make submarine torpedo tube sets. All of the American firms, Scott said in a letter to Kennedy, are in areas of substantial unemployment.

TORPEDO TUBES

The Youngstown Welding and Engineering Co., Scott said, had produced torpedo tubes for both the Navy and private shipyards for the past several years with firms in Scottsdale, Pa., Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, as subcontractors.

Last year, however, the Defense Department in awarding submarine contracts, permitted the shipyards to order three sets of torpedo tubes from a Canadian firm, Scott said.

This, the senator added, resulted in a layoff of half the Youngstown firm's employees and injury to the Pennsylvania firms.

7 MORE SUBS

Private shipyards were recently awarded contracts for seven more submarines, and Scott said he understood the torpedo tube contracts may go to Canadian companies also.

Scott said he was informed by the Defense Department that the regulation waiving the Bay American provisions for Canadian firms was issued to coordinate economic efforts of both countries in the common defense.

But Scott said "Our grave economic problems—unemployment, the balance of payments deficit, and declining industries vital to our defense—require a change of policy to protect the best interests of the United States."

PILOT SPOTS HARVARD MEN SCALING WALL

TALKEETNA, Alaska (AP)—

Seven Harvard University climbers are in good shape and still scaling Mt. McKinley's Wickersham Wall veteran bush pilot Don Sheldon reported Monday morning.

Sheldon flew near the party at the 17,000-foot level and the climbers indicated all was well and they were continuing the climb. Sheldon spotted the group Sunday morning after a three-day search.

The climbers had last been sighted six days ago. Sheldon, well-known for mountain rescue missions, spotted the party's tracks Friday. The tracks disappeared in an avalanche. The avalanche apparently occurred after the group had passed that point, Sheldon said.

UNABLE TO LAND

Sheldon, accompanied by a Civil Air Patrol observer, was unable to land the plane at 17,000 feet. He said the mountain was obscured by clouds. He was unable to talk with the climbers and all communication was by prearranged signals.

The CAP official, L. Tyree, said the climbers probably would take two more days to reach the 19,470-foot north summit of McKinley.

Leader of the expedition is Henry L. Abrams, 22, Scarsdale, N.Y., a major in Greek at Harvard.

Other members were Peter Carman, 21, Nashville, Tenn.; Christopher Goetze, 23, Randolph N.H.; John Graham, 21, Tacoma, Wash.; Richard G. C. Millikan, 21, Berkeley, Calif.; David S. Roberts, 20, Boulder, Colo.; and Donald C. Jensen, 20, of Walnut Creek, Calif.

LI COMMUTERS CAN TRAVEL BY HYDROFOIL

By ALTON BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK (AP)—Long Island commuters ushered in a new water route way to New York City—in a hydrofoil vessel. And it was quite a day, even for commuters.

They came to the rescue of a cabin cruiser on fire in Long Island Sound—and the passengers turned out to be Mrs. and Mrs. Samuel Goldwyn of movie fame and Robert Lehman, investment banker.

Later, in the East River, a Coast Guard launch interrupted the commuting to ask that a report be made out on the fire.

And then, Ira E. Dowd, president of the American Hydrofoil Lines, fell overboard. He was rescued immediately.

MAIDEN VOYAGE

It was the maiden voyage of the Albatross on a commuter run from Port Washington, Long Island to the foot of Wall Street.

Eleven commuters who work in the financial district and 2 observers, officials and newsmen made up the passenger list, except for the quick and fortunate additions of the Goldwyns and Lehman.

This hydrofoil vessel, built entirely of aluminum, is designed to cruise, or nearly fly, over the water supported by aluminum foils. With forward speed, the foils developed lift like aircraft wings, raising the hull completely above the water.

Dowd said the Albatross is the first of 35 such vessels he plans to put in operation by the end of next year with 15 in the New York area, 5 in Boston, 5 in Philadelphia, 5 in the Great Lakes area and 5 in the Florida-Caribbean area.

Another unavoidable fact is that one family out of every three will have someone needing hospital care this year.

Could YOU meet a $500 hospital bill right out of your pocket? Probably not... few breadwinners can in these days of high living costs.

So don't ignore the odds against escaping a big hospital bill. Rely on Blue Cross to protect you, as do more than 720,000 of your neighbors in Central Pennsylvania.

YANKEE LEAD NARROWS AS A'S WIN; BOSOX EDGE OUT LA

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

There may still be a pennant race in the American League if Dick Radatz' arm holds out and Harmon Killebrew's bat remains ablaze.

Radatz, Boston's redoubtable relief pitcher, saved another Monday as the Red Sox defeated Los Angeles 2-1 and Killebrew, Minnesota's home run king, socked another as the Twins overpowered Cleveland 13-1.

The "save" was Radatz' fourth in the last seven days and the home run was Killebrew's fourth in the last five games.

GAIN ON YANKEES
The victories enabled the second-place Red Sox and the fourth-place Twins to gain a full game on the league-leading New York Yankees, who dropped an 11-0, 12-inning marathon to Kansas City, Boston inched to within 5½ games and Minnesota 6½.

Chicago's third-place White Sox shut out Baltimore 4-0 to remain a single percentage point behind the Red Sox. Washington thrashed Detroit 11-6.

Frank Malzone was the batting star of the Red Sox' fifth victory in their last seven games. He homered off Don Lee in the sixth inning to snap a 1-1 tie. The All-Star third baseman also scored the first run, singling in the second and coming home on Bob Tillman's triple.

TWINS HOMER-HAPPY

Bill Monbouquette, now 13-6, had a four-hitter until Bob Sadow, who doubled with one out in the eighth. Radatz, coming out of the bullpen for the 37th time this season, got pinch hitter Leon Wagner to hit into a double play and retired the Angels in order in the ninth for his 10th save. He also has 10 victories in 11 decisions, all in relief.

The homer-happy Twins hit three more, giving them 11 in four games as they rolled to their fourth triumph in succession and third in a row over Cleveland. The homers, by Earl Battey, Don Mincher and Killebrew each came with a man on base to ease the way for Dick Stigman who coasted to his eighth victory with a four-hitter.

Killebrew's homer was his 21st, only one behind teammate Bob Allison, who leads the league with 22.

PETERS BLANKS BIRDS

The Athletics, battling uphill all the way, finally defeated the Yankees in the 12th after tying the score with one run in the ninth, and again with three runs in the 11th. The winning run resulted from a hit batter and three walks issued by Bill Stafford, the seventh Yankee pitcher. The final walk, to Jerry Lumpe, forced Bobby Del Greco over the plate.

The day's best pitching performance was turned in by rookie southpaw Gary Peters of the White Sox who blanked the Orioles on one hit, striking out 13. The lone Baltimore hit was a two-out single in the third inning by losing pitcher Robin Roberts.

SCHAYES TO COACH NATS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dolph Schayes, one of the oldest stars in pro basketball, today is one of its youngest coaches.

"It's going to be quite a change for me," said the 35-year-old Schayes Monday after being named coach of the National Basketball Association Syracuse Nationals, transplanted here at the end of last season.

Schayes, possessor of the longest, highest scoring career in pro basketball, was picked by co-owners Irv Kosloff and Ike Richmond to succeed Alex Hannum, who said business interests in his home state of California kept him from moving here with the Nats.

Although he indicated he would do his coaching from the bench, Schayes didn't rule out the possibility of playing if the need arises.

"I'm contemplating coaching," was the way he put it.

The new coach promises "fast-breaking, exciting, winning basketball" from what will be basically the same team that finished second to Boston in the Eastern Division last year, then was surprised by Cincinnati in the first round of the playoffs.

PALMER FIGHTS COLD; READIES FOR PGA OPEN

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Arnold Palmer fought a nagging cold today while scheming on ways and means of winning the only big golf championship that has eluded him—the PGA.

The greatest money-winner in the game's history, in the peculiar position of having to win this final major tournament in order to get into the World Series of Golf, was anything but confident as he played the 7,046-yard DAC Country Club course Monday.

He admitted that the cold had handicapped him in the British Open, where he failed to win his third championship. "It made me weak and it also hurt my concentration," said Palmer, who was still sniffing as he tuned up in 96 degrees of heat.

275 WILL WIN

Indicating that he didn't think the course was overly tough, Palmer said he expected 275 to win the tournament. This is four shots less than any other player has predicted and would be nine strokes under par.

Julius Boros, the National Open champion who is among the favorites, played nine holes and said what he had seen of the course looked good.

Boros was the favorite of many of the golfers. Gay Brewer, who reportedly had a tuneup round of 66 but wouldn't verify it, said the 43-year-old Boros was the "best driver on the tour—long, accurate and straight and he is starting to putt real good. I pick him to win it."

Jack Nicklaus, the Masters champion who is another top favorite, and Gary Player, the defending champion, did not show up Monday for practice rounds. They'll be on hand today.

FLYERS SAFE
SOMERSET, Pa. (AP)—Two southwestern Pennsylvania men escaped with minor cuts Monday from the crash of their light plane in a mountainous section of Somerset County.

The single-engine craft burst into flames after pilot Robert Williams, 33, of Waynesburg and his father-in-law, Samuel Shrontz, 47, of Marianna R. D. 1, walked away from the wreckage.

Walter Burkemo of Detroit, former PGA champion, was only one stroke behind the leaders after the third round of the U. S. Open at Brookline. He finished tied for eighth after the four rounds.

Retzlaff Begins Double Duty Job

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Pete Retzlaff, talented pass-catching end of the Philadelphia Eagles for seven years, checks in here today ready for double duty as player and coach.

Retzlaff was signed in that dual capacity Monday.

General Manager Vince McNally said Retzlaff will be assigned duties by Head Coach Nick Skorich. "He will, of course, concentrate on the offensive end," McNally said.

Skorich welcomed Retzlaff to his staff as a player "of popularity who will be an asset to the new boys."

A total of 31 players, the majority rookies, arrived here over the weekend and will start two-day practice workouts on the local football field.

Fairfield Little League

The Pirates, in a scoring affair called at the end of five innings because of darkness, blasted the Orioles 33-18 Monday evening on the Little League diamond.

A total of six pitchers gave up 32 walks and bolstered by some poor fielding and many throwing errors, the Pirates almost doubled the last place Orioles' 18 tallies.

Paul Myers had a perfect evening for the winners as he went four for four at the plate. Joe McClellan paced the losers with three hits for four at bats.

Fairfield Pony League

The Amvets pulled Fairfield from its first place hold by scoring a run in the bottom of the seventh inning and walking off with a 5-4 verdict in a make-up game Monday evening.

In the tight, well-played ball game, the Amvets built a 4-1 lead going into the final inning. Fairfield came up with three runs in the top half of the frame to knot the count. Halley drew a walk and Bream got on via an error. Joe Kane then drilled a single to center scoring Harley. Mort followed with a double to left sending in Bream and an infield miscue putting Troxell on base, sent Nagle, who was running for Kane, home with the tying run.

The Amvets came back with a rally of their own in the bottom of the frame. Dave Baldwin, who just joined the team a little over a week ago, and Deardorff drew walks. "Gus" Rice then rapped a long single to right-center sending in Baldwin with the winning run.

Rice collected two of the four scattered hits given up by Sloaner. On the other hand, Deardorff allowed but five Fairfield hits.

Littlestown Little League

Working behind the two-hit pitching of Steve Dutterer, the Orioles strengthened their hold on second place by turning back the Phils 8-5 Monday evening on McSherry Field.

A pair of hits in the top of the fifth inning paved the way for the Orioles' three winning runs which snapped a 5-5 tie.

Steve Strevig and "Chuck" Everhart banged out singles to collect the only two hits off Dutterer. Dutterer sailed through the game stiking out 14 batters and giving up six walks. Everhart went the distance for the losers allowing eight hits, striking out 11 and walking six. Joe Bucher and John Matland paced the winners with a pair of hits, both of Bucher's going for doubles.

PIRATES BEAT GIANTS TWICE AND CUBS TAKE OVER 2ND SPOT

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

That's no misprint in the National League standings — that team in second place IS the Chicago Cubs.

And since it's already mid-July, that ranks as one of the big surprises of the baseball year.

Last season, you'll remember, these Cubs finished in ninth place—even behind Houston's brand-new Colts. The season before that it was next-to-last, and the season before that, the same. In fact, you have to go all the way back to 1946 before you'll find the Cubs in a first-division finish.

TRIM THE CARDS

They took over the runner-up spot Monday—with an assist from San Francisco's collapsing Giants.

Dick Ellsworth and Lindy McDaniel combined for a five-hit shutout and Ellsworth keyed the Cubs to a 5-2 victory over the 2-0. Then the Pittsburgh Pirates took care of the Giants, sweeping the defending champions in a twin-night doubleheader, 2-1 and 4-1.

Meanwhile, the Philadelphia Phillies played a two-base error and Bob Odis' single for an 11th-inning run that gave them a 5-4 decision over front-running Los Angeles, snapping the Dodgers' winning string at seven games and cutting their lead over the Cubs to six.

METS END STREAK

Also in the NL—a bases-loaded walk to Ken Walters in the 12th inning enabled Cincinnati to edge Milwaukee 4-3; and the New York Mets ended a 15-game losing slump by trouncing Houston 14-5, but the Colts came back in the second half of the doubleheader for an 8-0 romp as Don Notbart won for the first time since his no-hitter two months ago.

Ellsworth, now 13-6, cracked open the game at St. Louis with a bases-loaded single off loser Ernie Broglio in the seventh inning after singles by Ken Hubbs and Dick Bertell and a walk to Andre Rodgers. Then in the last of the seventh, the Cubs' young southpaw and McDaniel stifled the Cards' big threat.

With the bases filled and none out, Ellsworth struck out Tim McCarver and Stan Musial before McDaniel came in and fanned Julian Javier.

ERRORS HURT LA

Dodger rookie second baseman Nate Oliver opened the way for the Phils in the 11th inning when he dropped Don Demeter's pop up for a two-base error with one out. Reliever Ed Roebuck then gave an intentional walk to Roy Sievers, who had driven in three earlier runs with a homer and sacrifice fly, before Odis rapped his clinching single. Jack Baldschun was the winner.

Willie Stargell's two-run single in the last of the ninth sent Pittsburgh to its opening game victory over the Giants and Juan Marichal, who had blanked the Pirates on four hits through the first eight innings. Al McBean, 9-2, won it in relief of Bob Friend.

Joe Gibbon scattered 10 Giant hits in taking the second game, with Joe Pagliaroni's homer, Bill Virdon's triple and Dick Schofield's double the key Pittsburgh blows. San Francisco now has dropped four straight games and six of its last seven.

GOP Leaders Urge Special Session

HARRISBURG (AP) — Republican legislative leaders are trying to persuade Gov. Scranton to call a special session of the General Assembly next November to act on reapportionment.

The GOP leaders met with the governor Monday, but he did not commit himself on their proposal. Originally, September had been mentioned as the tentative date for the special session.

House Speaker W. Stuart Helm said the leadership favored a special session after the Nov. 5 general election because both chambers would have full complements at that time to work on the reapportionment issue.

There presently are three house vacancies to be filled because of deaths. A fourth is anticipated because Rep. James Bowman, R-Dauphin, has said he would resign to run for Dauphin County court.

Police Justice Fines Himself

WELLSVILLE, N.Y. (AP)—"No excuses" is the way Police Justice Philip Engelder summed up the fact Monday he neglected to pay two overdue parking violations—so he fined himself $2 for each ticket. He wasn't the first official to punish himself. Last month the mayor discovered an overdue ticket and paid a $2 fine.

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—British and Soviet peace envoys returned empty handed today from pro-Communist Pathet Lao headquarters. Sources who accompanied the mission said Pathet Lao chiefs made no move to end the Laotian crisis.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Charleston Indians meet the Class AA Eastern League All-Stars tonight in what could be the most anti-climactic game of the year. The Indians and most of the All-Stars played their best ball in weeks Monday night.

Charleston, riddled by injuries and barely holding on to first place, got fine hurling from Tex Weaver and timely hitting from Bob Chance and Tony Curry to whip the Reading Red Sox 6-1 and snap a five-game losing streak.

Weaver (3-2) scattered five hits but lost a shutout in the seventh when Ricco Petrocelli walked, took second on a balk and scored on a Mike Ryan's double.

At Elmira, All-Stars Don Wallace, Jim Liggett and Larry Haney each got four hits as the Pioneers pounded out a 9-2 triumph over York behind the six-hit pitching of Darold Knowles, another All-Star.

The only member of the All-Star team Elmira's Earl Weaver takes to Charleston tonight who didn't fare well Monday night was Springfield pitcher Frank Linzy (11-5) who was touched for five hits in six innings as Binghamton defeated the Giants 3-1 in the first game of a doubleheader. The Giants took the nightcap 5-2 after scoring three unearned runs in the 11th inning.

Besides Wallace, Liggett and Haney, Elmira will send two more men against Charleston tonight. Binghamton will furnish three.

Three of the four All-Star pitchers have been most effective against the Indians this year, allowing two victories while whipping Charleston 12 times.

York's Jack Jenkins is 4-0 against them, while Binghamton's John O'Donoghue is 5-1 and the Giants' Linzy is 3-1. Linzy will start.

WIVES LOBBY FOR PLATFORM BACKFILLING

HARRISBURG (AP)—Contending that Gov. Scranton's proposed anthracite strip mining bill does not go far enough in regulating the industry, four Luzerne County housewives are trying to persuade lawmakers to amend the measure.

The four, armed with petitions, charts and maps, came to the state capital Monday and spoke with legislators.

They represented the Citizens Committee of Luzerne County for Tougher Strip Mine Controls, a group seeking legislative help to put more teeth in the Scranton bill.

"We will have someone here every day until the bill is voted on," pledged Mrs. Sheldon Thomas of Plymouth.

Others present were Mrs. Paul Kescielnik, Mrs. David Morris and Mrs. Margaret Tallgren, also of Plymouth.

Mrs. Thomas showed over 1,000 signed petitions to lawmakers, calling for tougher legislation. The women's main complaint was that the Scranton bill did not provide for backfilling to contour in all cases.

"We expect backfilling to contour because that was in the Republican platform and Gov. Scranton promised it in his campaign," Mrs. Thomas said.

"We're not against striping," she added. "But we feel the cost of backfilling is very little compared to the millions of dollars of profit in strip mining. The economy of the Wyoming Valley is at stake in this bill."

Mrs. Thomas also pointed to the bituminous strip mining bill, which provides for backfilling to contour in virtually every instance.

"If backfilling to contour is

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Sgt. Alvin York, winner of the Medal of Honor in World War I, is reported in improved physical condition.

The troublesome skin ulcers that caused his hospitalization are "healing very well," a hospital spokesman said Monday at Nashville.

It has not been decided when the 75-year-old York will be returned home to Pall Mall, Tenn. He entered the hospital July 8.

NEW YORK (AP)—Star Gertrude Berg's virus infection has caused a two-week break in the Broadway run of "Dear Me, the Sky is Falling."

The management announced Monday performances of the comedy will resume July 29.

Miss Berg became ill last week.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Shirley Maclaine will make one final movie for producers Hal B. Wallis and Joseph Hazen under terms of an out-of-court settlement.

The settlement, made public Monday, provides that the actress will have no further script approval before the movie goes into production.

Miss Maclaine, seeking to void her 1957 contract with the producers, filed suit last December. She cited a California law banning employment contracts extending more than seven years.

2 Rescued Boys Leave Hospital

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Two of three boys rescued after 50 hours in an abandoned coal mine were home today while the third remained hospitalized.

A spokesman for St. Clair Memorial Hospital said Bobby Abbott, 15, and Danny O'Kain, 14, were released Monday after it was determined they had suffered no permanent ill effects from their ordeal in the suburban Castle Shannon mine.

Billy Burke, 13, was detained for further observation, the spokesman said. He was listed in good condition.

The boys became lost in the mine last Thursday and were not found until Saturday some 2,000 feet inside the gas-contaminated mine.

good enough for the bituminous area, then it is good enough for the anthracite region," she said.

Scranton has argued that backfilling to contour for the entire anthracite area would hurt employment in Schuylkill County and the southern fields.
